

TIRED OUT!

At this season, every one needs to use some tonic. IRON enters into almost every physiological process for those who need building up.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

For Weakness, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc. It has NO EQUAL, and is the only iron medicine that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion, does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do. Dr. J. H. BAKER, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action excels all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."

Dr. W. N. WATKINS, 1219 Third Street, Cincinnati, O., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

TERRIBLE MINE DISASTER.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY MEN ENTOMBED IN A MINE.

Another Explosion Imminent Which Should It Occur Would Be the Most Disastrous Mine Disaster on Record—A List of the Victims as Far as Reported.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 6.—News has just reached here of an explosion in one of the shafts of the Victoria Coal company. One hundred and fifty miners were at work in the mine when the explosion occurred, and it is feared that many of them will die before assistance can reach them. Rescuing parties have made several attempts to reach them, but the flames and gases arising from the mines have thus far prevented them from getting near enough to be of any assistance. The families of the miners are crowding around the mouth of the pit, crying and praying that the lives of the entombed may be saved. The scenes are heartrending. Many families will be left entirely destitute.

It was believed late last night that the fire in the air shaft had been extinguished and that only a small body of flame existed between the air and the main shafts, which can be conquered before long. An attempt will soon be made to bring air in and the work of rescue will begin.

A shift that came up late in the night reported hearing evidence of a pick striking the opposite side of the wall. There is a faint hope of reaching the imprisoned men. The danger of gas being driven into the fire and a second explosion is not past, and fears are entertained that the whole place may be blown up. Old miners say such a result is possible. If it should occur the catastrophe would be the greatest recorded in the history of coal mining. The mines extend out from the shore more than a mile beneath the waters of the harbor. The cause of the explosion is unknown, but it is generally supposed to have been an explosion of coal dust. The tale may never be told.

The men now in the bowels of the earth were on the afternoon shift—from 2 until 10 o'clock. Jules Michael, one of the injured, says he was at supper in No. 2 shaft when he felt the concussion. All scrambled, but became insensible, and only one was saved of his four companions, whose dead bodies came up in the cage with him. He represents the explosion as having been terrific. Everything became dark at once. John Lynch, another of the injured, has been demented ever since the accident. He continually talks about working in the pit. It is thought he will die, having inhaled gas. Samuel Hudson, one of the killed, was a miner of great experience. He died from the effects of after damp.

Following are the names of the killed and injured.

Dead—William Davis, John Linn, John Smith, William Craven, Frederick Watson and Samuel Hudson; also, seven Chinamen. Injured—George Davis, John Jones, J. Stone, Sr., John Lynch and Jules Michael. Richard Gibson, the overseer of the mine, miraculously escaped with a few cuts about the face. It is estimated that there are between fifty and seventy-five Chinamen in the mine. The following is a list of those now in the mine, as near as can be ascertained:

No. 1 Level—George Bowden, George Simmons, T. Martin, David Ellis and his son Arthur, Benjamin Popplewell, James Thomas, Joseph Watson, Edward Johns, David Morgan, Edward Wilkins, Edwin Benson, Wobank, James Campbell, John Malcolm, Robert Buffington, J. McGuffie, Robert Fallo, James Milton, William Beane, William Gilbert, John Richards, J. Forest, Joseph Thompson, Michael Lyons, Andrew Hunter, John Meakins, Andrew Muir, W. Campbell, J. J. Smith.

New Slope—Daniel Dawson, R. Burns, Thomas Perry, Robert Nicholson, Jonathan Blundell, George Riggs, George Dawson, T. Hughes, Charles Drake, C. Willis, William Hogtie, James Sydn, John Thompson, A. Smiley, William Morris, William Hoy, John Miles, Alexander McDonald, William Scoble, Frank Tully, William Stevens, J. A. Meakin, J. Gorman.

No. 5 Level, Old Slope—M. Coran, Malcolm McLean, Peter Bucca, Joseph Tollard, John Zerman and DePorte (four latter Italians), Nicholas John, Roderick McDonald, W. J. Morgan, S. H. Meyers, T. Allen and H. Brun.

No. 8 Level, North—George Old, Abraham Lewis, John Lewis, John Wobank, Chip Wolianak, Evans Jones, Thomas Evans, William and James Davy, J. H. Westfall, Arch Muir, Henry Lee and his son Hudson Lee, Robert and John Stone, William Redby, Joseph and Andrew Martin, Bertram, Robert Bevilockway, William Luckey, Sr., William Luckey, Jr., James Hoggan, J. Byers and James Isbister.

The grief of the women is terrible. They tear their hair and walk up and down before the shaft, and some of them want to go into the cage to find their loved ones.

Ohio Republicans.

CLEVELAND, O., May 6.—Toledo will be the scene of the next Republican state convention, to be held July 27 and 28. Hon. Daniel Ryan, of Portsmouth, will be temporary chairman, and Jake Donahoon, of Columbus, secretary. At the meeting of the state central committee speeches were made by ex-Governor Foster, Attorney General Kohler, Hon. Amos Townsend, Col. R. C. Parsons, Col. Poorman and others. The mention of Sherman's name as a presidential candidate by Governor Foster was greeted with loud and prolonged cheering. Several candidates were present, among them being Capt. W. C. Lyon, of the Newark American, who wants to be lieutenant governor, and Col. Poorman, who has an eye for the state auditorship. Congressman Romeis says that Lucas county is for Sherman for president and Foraker for governor.

Shot by a Deputy Sheriff.

PALESTINE, Tex., May 6.—John Williams, a desperado and the murderer of a wealthy sheep man named Blocker was shot dead last night while trying to escape by Deputy Sheriff Powell, of Hill City.

A Persevering Industry.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The sixth attempt in six months was made last night to burn the office of the New Yorker Zeitung. The incendiary was not discovered.

WASHINGTON C. DE PAUW.

Death of the Well Known Millionaire and Philanthropist.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., May 6.—Mr. Washington C. De Pauw, of this city, the well known millionaire and philanthropist who was stricken with apoplexy in Chicago last night, died at 11 o'clock today. His remains will be brought to this city for interment. The sad news has cast gloom all over the city. Next to W. H. English, Mr. De Pauw was the wealthiest man in Indiana.

Mr. De Pauw is credited with having been the greatest of American plate glass manufacturers. However that may be he will be longest known as the great patron of the Indiana Ashbury university at a time when it was in dire necessity. This university was founded in 1837, and for forty-seven years thereafter it remained but a university in name.

A few years ago Mr. De Pauw, the president of the board of trustees, came to the rescue by meeting the university's immediate wants and providing for its future on a magnificent scale. Under his patronage the college was at once reorganized and expanded into a university, the trustees voting that it should hereafter bear its benefactor's name. Besides his liberal donations during life Mr. De Pauw has provided that 45 per cent. of his vast estate shall go to the university on his death.

HAVOC WROUGHT BY THE WIND.

A Terrible Storm Sweeps the Upper Michigan Peninsula.

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 6.—A wind storm swept over the upper peninsula Monday afternoon, completely prostrating telegraph and telephone wires and doing great damage. At Ishpeming, Houghton, Negaunee, Escanaba and all through from Fort Howard to Marquette, and from Norway to Sault Ste. Marie, communication was entirely destroyed.

Many buildings were unroofed, chimneys demolished and railroad travel badly interrupted by fallen trees. Men in the woods were terribly frightened. At Norway, John Coleman was killed by a fallen tree. At Quinnesec, the Masonic hall and firemen's building was demolished. At Iron Mountain, great damage was done to houses. It is believed that when communication is restored reports of great loss will be received from all quarters. Nothing but the most meager reports are procurable at present.

Over the Allegheny Mountains.

PITTSBURGH, May 6.—A thunder storm, accompanied by heavy hail and wind equal to a hurricane, passed over the Allegheny Mountains in eastern Somerset and western Bedford counties between 7 and 8 o'clock last evening. A few moments before the storm came a roaring like the discharge of so many cannon was heard in the distance, and as soon as the clouds rolled across the sky the roaring increased. The storm struck the mountains, moving in a northwesterly direction, and was about a quarter of a mile wide. For two miles the large trees were twisted off like straw, and everything in its path trampled on the earth. In some instances immense trees were caught up and carried several hundred feet into the air, and huffed back again with such swiftness and cannot be described.

Murdered With Stillsetto.

HAZLETON, Pa., May 6.—A citizen at 1 o'clock this morning saw a scuffle between three men on Diamond avenue and upon one of them falling to the street the other two were seen to run off in different directions. On going to the scene the man who had fallen was found to be dead, having been stabbed in the throat with a stillsetto. The body was subsequently identified as that of Antonio Gatz, an Italian about twenty-six years of age, who resided at Honey Brook, a town several miles south of here. There is no clue whatever to the murderers or the motive for the crime.

Laboring Forces of Michigan City.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., May 6.—The trouble which has been brewing for some time among the laboring element of Michigan City culminated yesterday when over three hundred employees of the wholesale lumber yards went on a strike. They have been receiving $1.50 a day and have been paid monthly. The men demand $1.50 a day, with pay day every two weeks. The employers held a meeting and combined to resist their demands. The trouble looks serious, and is apt to involve the entire laboring force of the city.

Two Millions for Clark University.

WORCESTER, Mass., May 6.—The incorporators of the new Clark university, to be established through the liberality of Jones G. Clark, of this city, met yesterday at Mr. Clark's residence. Mr. Clark informed the gentlemen of his intention to make further gifts to the college to the amount of $2,000,000. Included in this is a collection of works of art valued at $500,000. It is Mr. Clark's desire that the college be modeled upon the German university system.

National Pride Touched.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The Canadian Pacific railroad having offered free transportation through Canada to candidates to the colonial conference now sitting in London, J. D. Spreckels & Brothers, of this city, owners of the Oceanic steamship company, who are desirous the delegates should travel through the United States, offer to take them free of charge from New York to Sydney, N. S. W.

Burned by an Explosion.

ILLINOIS, Ill., May 6.—Rev. Robert Smith and three sons were seriously, if not fatally, burned by an explosion of powder which occurred at the coal mine at Dawson, a small town west of here, Tuesday evening.

A Great Sale Closed.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 6.—The great thoroughbred sale by the National Horse and Cattle exchange closed at 12 o'clock today. Forty-four head sold for $16,530. The two day sale aggregated 107 head for $28,895.

GENERAL S. B. BUCKNER.

UNANIMOUSLY NOMINATED AT THE LOUISVILLE CONVENTION.

All Opposition to Him Withdrawn From the Gubernatorial Race—James W. Bryan Nominated for Lieutenant Governor—Proceedings of the Convention.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 6.—The result of the Democratic state convention was as predicted—Gen. Buckner was nominated by acclamation. When the time for nominations came Hon. John D. Harris, G. A. C. Holt and Albert S. Berry, contesting candidates for governor, came forward in order, and each withdrew from the race, recognizing that Gen. Buckner was already practically the nominee of the party.

A committee was sent for Mr. Buckner, and while awaiting its return, the platform was read. It indorses Grover Cleveland, is glad the Democrats are in power, favors as much civil service as will enforce a faithful performance of duty by persons in public offices; says that the honest money of the constitution, as expressed in gold and silver, and paper convertible into coin on demand, is good enough for anybody; sympathizes with Ireland; views with alarm the growing tendency among certain classes to seek aid and bounty of the federal government; denounces the present war tariff; resolves that the action of the Democrats in the United States house in reclaiming from the railroads and other corporations 100,000,000 acres of unearned land granted them by the Republican party should be heartily approved; also that freedom of labor is essential to contentment and prosperity, and that workmen should be protected against monopoly; says that the employment of young children in mines and factories is dead wrong, and winds up by favoring the development of the resources of the state.

When the Democratic state convention assembled Congressman Taubee renewed his effort to induce the convention to strike from its platform the clause which particularly applauds the president for the fidelity and courage with which he has protected the treasury from pillage by the exercise of the veto power, basing his opposition upon the veto of the dependent pension bill. He declared that this particular veto was an outrage upon the veterans of the war and an insult to the large majority of both houses of congress that voted in favor of the measure.

Congressman McKenzie came to the defense of the president in a vigorous speech. He declared that the veto in question had brought Cleveland nearer to the hearts of the people of Kentucky than he had ever been before, and aroused prolonged enthusiasm by appealing for harmony on the policy of the administration in the sure and certain hope that the distinguished president (Speaker Carlisle) would occupy the second place on the ticket with Cleveland in the next National campaign.

The report of the committee on resolutions was then adopted. Mr. Taubee's objection to the administration received but scant support.

Hon. James E. Bryan, of Covington, was nominated for lieutenant governor by acclamation, there being no opposition.

P. W. Hardin, of Mercer county, was nominated for attorney general, Judge A. E. Richards, of Louisville, withdrawing before completion of the first ballot, and the nomination was made unanimous.

Fayette Hewitt, of Hardin county, was nominated for auditor by acclamation without opposition.

The office of superintendent of public instruction, over which there has been preliminary canvassing for the past three days, developing much bitter feeling between the supporters of the different candidates, came next on the list. The following named gentlemen were nominated: E. P. Thomson, of Owen county; T. M. Goodnight, of Simpson county; H. K. Taylor, of Logan; J. DeSha, of Pickett; Harrison Boring, of Hopkins.

Col. W. C. P. Breckenridge in seconding the nomination of Professor Pickett, made one of the most brilliant speeches of the convention. No result was reached on the first ballot.

Crazed By Love.

CINCINNATI, May 6.—A sad case of insanity was brought to light in the probate court today. Mrs. Mary Craig, colored widow, living with her grown daughter, in the rear of 81 Taylor street, was recently engaged to be married to a laborer named John Breckenridge. The dusky lover, however, was fickle-minded, and some days ago suddenly informed his intended that her name would never be Breckenridge. This treachery so unhinged Mrs. Craig that she became insane, and last night stole silently from her bed room out on the porch, two stories above the railroad track, and would no doubt have dashed herself to the ground had she not been opportunely discovered and dragged into the window. The daughter is a colored maiden apparently much more eligible than her mother.

Injured While Driving.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Thomas B. Kerr, ex-secretary of the Broadway Railroad company, was thrown from a buggy and seriously, perhaps fatally injured. He is one of the principal witnesses in the forthcoming trial of Jacob Sharp for bribery, and the accident will probably cause the postponement of that trial.

A Dozen Men Instantly Killed.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 6.—At Coosa tunnel, twenty miles distant, on the Columbus & Western railroad, seventeen colored laborers and a white foreman were buried in a tunnel by a prematurely exploded blast. Six men were taken out alive, but horribly mangled. The other twelve were killed.

Washington C. De Pauw Dead.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., May 6.—Washington C. De Pauw, the well known millionaire and philanthropist who was stricken with apoplexy in Chicago last night, died at 11 o'clock today. His remains will be brought to this city for interment. The sad news has cast gloom over all the city.

A Failure in the Hub.

BOSTON, May 6.—Richard Proctor, dealer in woollens and tailors' trimmings, has assumed with liabilities of $100,000. The creditors are mostly eastern firms.

FOTHERINGHAM ACQUITTED.

This Celebrated Case Thrown Out of Court and the Prisoner Released.

ST. LOUIS, May 6.—The Fotheringham case has been thrown out of court and the prisoner discharged on the ground that the robbery was committed in St. Louis county and not in St. Louis city, each having a county government of its own. When the stenographer who was present at the first interview between Superintendent Daniel and the defendant after the robbery, was examined, he said that Fotheringham in this interview claimed that Whitbrook first assaulted him at a station called Oak Ridge, in St. Louis county and not within the jurisdiction of the court. At this point the judge asked the counsel for the state if they had any evidence to show that the crime was begun before the train reached Oak Hill or any evidence that any of the stolen property was brought into this city by the prisoner, and upon receiving a negative answer, the judge announced that the court had no jurisdiction in the case.

Counsel for the state said that the indictment was based on a section of the statutes providing that any offense committed on a steamboat or railroad train might be tried in any county through which said boat or train passed. The court decided this section unconstitutional and instructed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty, which was done.

Fotheringham was discharged, but was dissatisfied, as anything less than an acquittal on the merits of the case will render his chance of obtaining damages against the express company very slim indeed. It is expected that an indictment will be found against him next in St. Louis county.

A Lady Pilot.

BURLINGTON, Vt., May 6.—Mrs. Louise Daniels, wife of Capt. Daniels, of the Lake Champlain steamer Water Lily, has just received a license as pilot of that steamer. She passed a most satisfactory manner the usual examination before the United States inspector, and yesterday was examined by Dr. A. P. Grinnell, dean of the Burlington medical college, with reference to color-blindness or other defect of vision. Her eyes were found to be perfect. She stood at the helm of the Water Lily on the first trip through the lake and received many encomiums for the skill she displayed. Mrs. Daniels, who has spent the past ten years on the lake during the summer, is forty-two years old and is the embodiment of womanly grace and vigor.

An Inhuman Husband.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 6.—A letter from Texarkana, Tex., states that M. D. McLean, formerly of this county, is now in jail there for wife murder. About two years ago he married, in Bowie county, a wealthy widow with several children. It seems McLean became dissolute and a spendthrift, and his wife refused to furnish him money. To extort money from her he would hold her step-children over the fire until they were severely burned, and commit other equally inhuman deeds. About a week ago he requested money and was refused, whereupon he beat and cut his wife so severely that she died from her injuries. The murderer was arrested, and it was necessary to take him to Texarkana to prevent his being lynched.

Postmaster Arrested.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Postmaster and ex-Superior D. J. McGroarty, of Westchester village, was arrested last night on a warrant charging him with neglect and refusal to turn over the books and money of the office of supervisor to his successor. It was said yesterday that McGroarty was short in his accounts, but this is not believed. He denies it, and his friends say he is holding back the books and money by order of the town board until his successor has filed a legal bond.

A Bridge Gives Way.

WELLSVILLE, O., May 6.—The iron bridge in process of construction between here and East Liverpool collapsed Tuesday night, precipitating the contractor, James McCann, his son, and a workman named J. C. Thurler a distance of thirty feet, burying them in the wreck. Mr. McCann had his skull fractured and was injured internally. Thurler had an arm broken and was terribly bruised and young McCann sustained internal injuries. All five in Leetonia.

Lake Dried Up By an Earthquake.

BENSON, A. T., May 6.—Six distinct shocks of earthquake were felt here yesterday. The volcanic eruption from the Whetstone mountain, caused by the shock, is still in progress. Another volcano is said to be in existence in the Catalina mountains, and still another in the Winchester mountain, about forty-five miles from here. About ten miles from Tombstone a lake covering an acre of ground was completely dried up in twenty minutes.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., May 6.—The report of the death of Bob Turnbull is a heavy weight joke perpetrated on a middle weight champion. Turnbull left the Sullivan company at this point for New York, and Manager Shedy telegraphed friends there that Turnbull's body would arrive there Wednesday. This dispatch led to the report that Turnbull had died in this city.

Elevated Railway Bill Passes.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 6.—The Elevated railway bill which grants the right of way to corporations through the streets of Philadelphia, to-day passed the house on third reading, by a vote of 113 to 34.

Madison Woolen Mills Sold.

MADISON, Ind., May 6.—A conditional sale of the Madison woolen mills plant was effected by the assignees this morning, the purchaser being George Obern, of Chicago. The price paid was $24,000.

Miner Killed.

NELSONVILLE, O., May 6.—William Meaher, aged thirty-one years, a miner employed at Brooks' coal mine, Section No. 29, was instantly killed by a fall of coal at 9 o'clock this morning.

Wife Murderer Must Hang.

TRENTON, N. J., May 6.—The court of pardons has refused to commute the sentence of Bisque, the Hoboken wife murderer, and he will be hanged on June 1 unless reprieved.

Swallowed Up.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 6.—The Richmond & Danville Railroad company assumed control of the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia this morning.

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 6, 1887.

A DISPATCH yesterday afternoon from Charles Phister announced the election of Judge Faulkner as United States Senator from West Virginia.

CYNTHIANA boasts of having better streets and sidewalks than any other town double her size in the State. She also prides herself on being the best "laid out city" in Kentucky.

The Louisville liquor men have "chipped in" and raised a fund to fight prohibition in Texas. Somebody must be getting a little uneasy as to the fate of the whisky question. Money does the work in elections.

The Democrats of Bracken will nominate a candidate for the Legislature by primary election, May 28th. There are two aspirants—Joel B. Hamilton and Joseph A. Walton. The latter is said to have the lead.

CAPTAIN TOM OWENS, of Carlisle, has been selected to deliver the eulogy on General Helm, at a meeting of the "Orphan Brigade" to be held in Bardonia, Ky., ere long. He declines the honor, however, as he will not be able to attend.

A $12,000 Confederate monument will be unveiled at Hopkinsville on the 19th of this month. It was presented to the city by J. C. Laytham, a former citizen of that place, but now a wealthy New Yorker. This is not the only thing Laytham has done for his old home, as he gave $40,000 to aid in building a number of turnpikes from that city into the surrounding country.

Pithy Points From Washington.
We believe there are enough men in the county of Mason, who are opposed to the business of drunkard-making, to vote whisky out of the county when the time comes.

We believe that it would be to the best interest of all good citizens were there not a drop of intoxicating liquor to be found in the county.

We believe that Maysville would do double the business in less than two years, were there not a drop of whisky made at the distilleries nor sold in the saloons, drug stores or groceries.

We believe that the taxes of the county would be cut down fully one-half, were the people to vote liquor with all its attendant evils from their midst.

We believe that the improvement in the morals of the community would alone compensate the people for the removal of this stupendous evil and wrong from among them.

We believe that the liquor business from its inception to its completion is a matter of more trouble and worry to the Government, municipality and family than all other evils combined.

We believe that the labor troubles, about which so much is said and written, are more chargeable to whisky and drunkenness and the evils which follow in their wake, than to any other agency.

We believe that every man who is engaged in the whisky traffic in any of its branches is the enemy of the Government, the municipality and the family, though he may not be aware of it.

We believe that every life the whisky people take of those who are working for the mitigation of the evil, will surely hasten the day of its discomfiture and doom. Witness, the murder of that good man in Scioto County, Ohio, but a few days since!

KNIGHTS OF LABOR NOTES.

Nicholasville, Ky., has one of the finest assemblies in the State. Its membership of 200 includes the most wide-awake and intelligent and moral people of the community.

The members of Loyal Assembly are frequently told by individuals outside of the order of what transpires at the meetings. A working man who is not connected with the order stated not long since that he could learn of everything happening in the meeting through the unguarded conversations of the members. This is an outrage, and let me caution the members against the too free use of their tongues. As far as the business is concerned, we might publish it and in no way be injured. Abolish street corner committees, brothers, and there will be no complaints of members revealing the business of the assembly.

"Isn't that Mrs. Holmes? I thought the doctors gave her up. She looks well now."

"She is well. After the doctors gave up her case she tried Dr. Pierce's 'Favorite Prescription' and began to get better right away. I heard her say not long ago, that she hadn't felt so well in twenty years. She does her own work, and says that life seems worth living, at last. 'Why,' said she, 'I feel as if I had been raised from the dead, almost.' Thus do thousands attest the marvelous efficacy of this God-given remedy for female weakness, prostration, ulceration, leucorrhoea, morning sickness, weakness of stomach, tendency to cancerous disease, nervous prostration, general debility and kindred affections.

It assembled Wednesday, May 4th, and at midnight that night, General Buckner was nominated for Governor by acclamation. Thursday morning, the nomination of Bryan, for Lieutenant Governor, Hewitt, for Auditor, and Tate, for Treasurer, soon followed. There was no opposition to them, and they were awarded the honor by acclamation.

The fight for the nomination for Attorney General was soon settled. Before the completion of the first ballot, Richards saw how things were going, and withdrew his name.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction there were five candidates, Pickett, Taylor, Thompson, Boreing and Goodnight. On the first ballot Pickett had a fraction over 245 votes. The hindmost candidate was dropped at the third ballot and so on, the contest resulting in the nomination of Prof. Pickett on the fifth ballot.

The nomination of Corbett, for Register of the Land Office, soon followed, and the work of the convention was finished.

PETER SMITH HUNG.

The Murderer of John Hannon Pays the Death Penalty.

New York, May 6.—Peter Smith was hanged in the yard of the Tombs prison this morning. The procession from the cell of the prisoner reached the scaffold at 7:35 o'clock a. m. with Fathers O'Connor and Duranquet on either side of the condemned man. The noose was adjusted, Smith kissed the crucifix, and at 7:30 a. m. the drop fell. Death was instantaneous. The body was lowered into a coffin sixteen minutes later.

Smith, with an accomplice named Alexander Sweeney, murdered John Hannon, a city watchman, on April 7, 1883. Both men were indicted for the crime, and sentenced to be hanged, but their case was appealed.

The court of appeals recently affirmed the judgment of the lower court in Smith's case and ordered a new trial in the case of Sweeney. Smith is believed to be guilty of a worse crime than the murder of Hannon. The old man was found dead in his stable, one morning, and it was believed at the time that he committed suicide. It is now thought that his son slew him to secure a few thousand dollars which the old man had saved. This is the first time in the history of the state that capital punishment has been carried out on any day but Friday.

Camden Gives It Up.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 6.—The ballot this afternoon was as follows: First ballot, Camden, 43; Flick, 50; Barbis, 5; Chew, 9; Brown, 1; Haymond, 1. On the second ballot Camden held his own, Flick gained 1, Barbis and Chew lost 1 each, Haymond giving 2. On the third ballot there was no change. Fourth, Flick lost 1 and Barbis gained 1; Fifth, Chew lost 1, which went to Haymond. Sixth, Haymond lost one, which went to Judge Johnston. Seventh, Haymond and Johnston lost one each; Chew gained two. Total number voting at each ballot, 89; necessary to a choice, 45. Mr. Camden has thrown up the sponge, and the two factions of the party will, it is now said, unite and elect a United States senator.

Overdose or Suicide.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Rev. Charles Ward, formerly rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church at Englewood, N. J., who shot himself and his wife, and tried to kill his little daughter, last February, was found dead at the residence of Judge Drew, at Rockland, late yesterday afternoon. Drew was his counsel and took Ward to his house. An empty bottle which had contained hydrate chlorate was found by Ward's side. The dead man was in the habit of taking the mixture to induce sleep, and perhaps took an overdose. His wife lately began proceedings for divorce. The grand jury did not indict him for the shooting, but the case would probably have been acted upon shortly but for the clergyman's death.

AN EXPERT BRICKMAKER.

The Story Told by a Chicago Man. Gathering Methods and Points.

No man in Chicago is possessed of more information on the subject of brickmaking than George M. Pullman. Though probably without personal experience in the mixing and burning of clay, Mr. Pullman might be set down as an expert brickmaker. As illustrating the thoroughness with which Pullman uses preparations before embarking in an enterprise, a well known brickmaker tells a very good story. Some years ago, when Pullman was preparing to engage in the brick business on the shores of Lake Calumet, this brickmaker received an invitation to call on the sleeping car magnate and talk brickmaking. Having in view the inferential possibility of a co-partnership, or contract, or other profitable connection with the Pullman town building enterprise, the brickmaker gladly availed himself of the opportunity thus offered. Pullman received him graciously, and in private showed him samples of Lake Calumet clay, asked questions concerning brickmaking methods and materials, and listened quite patiently while the brickmaker, warming up with his subject and naturally anxious to make a good impression, somewhat enthusiastically related his experience during the last twenty years, and described many of the processes which he had hitherto held almost as secrets. The interview over, Pullman said he would take the matter under consideration, and that his caller might expect to hear from him again almost any day.

As yet the brickmaker has not heard from Pullman. He was not long in learning, however, that half a dozen other skilled brickmakers had been similarly favored by the ambitious town builder, and that from all of them the host had drawn descriptions of their favorite methods and many valuable points concerning materials and machinery. Moreover, it was soon learned that while these brickmaking gentlemen were thus talking to Mr. Pullman in that gentleman's private office a shorthand man was industriously at work behind a screen making verbatim record of all he heard.

No one of the expert brickmakers was called for a second time by the sleeping car landlord, but in a few months they all heard, with what chagrin may be easily imagined, that Pullman had engaged in the brickmaking business on his own account.—Chicago Herald.

Mr. William Douglas relates this story of the old dueling days in the British army, and of a famous officer. There was a certain Frenchman in Paris, during the occupation of that city by the allied army, who boasted of having killed a dozen English officers, and promised to go on in this work. One evening he swaggered as usual into his cafe, and to his astonishment actually saw one of those hated "Anglais" occupying his chair, a chair that no one hitherto had dared to sit upon except himself. Mastering his passion he undid his sword belt, and having placed his sword on one side, began to insult the perfectly inoffensive English officer who sat so unconsciously looking in his (the Frenchman's) chair. He trod upon the Englishman's toes, he deprived him of his candles; he went from one thing to another without at all being able in the least, apparently, to disturb the other's placidity.

At last he snatched the newspaper out of the Englishman's hand; and the Briton slowly rose up, displaying to the astonished eyes of the Gaul a Guardsman nearly seven feet high. The giant, bending across the table, seized hold of the Frenchman's nose with one hand and his chin with the other, and wrenching his mouth open, spat down his throat. With a howl the Frenchman, holding his jaw with both hands, ran out of the room. His jaw was broken; and neither he nor any of his comrades was seen again at that cafe. This Englishman was Gen. Sir James Simpson, afterward commander in the Crimea and noted as the tallest man in the British army.

Wood, and by request was read. It was signed by about eighty-five property-owners and residents of that ward. The petition of the citizens of Front street was tabled on motion of Mr. Thomas.

The remains of Mrs. Mary A. Morris were brought here this morning, on the St. Lawrence, and taken on to Flemingsthe widow of the late George V. Morris, and died in Cincinnati, Tuesday, April 3rd, at the age of sixty-three years.

home of her parents near this city, at the

The Cincinnati and South-Eastern Railroad will be sold to-morrow at Covington.
Receiver H. E. Huntington, of the Kentucky Central, and other railroad officials have this week been inspecting that part of the road in operation in Fleming County, and it is thought at Flemings-burg that the examination has been made with a view of buying by Huntington and extending into the mountain counties.

The citizens of Pendleton and Robertson counties are said to be enthusiastic on the Charleston, Kentucky and Western Railroad question. An exchange reports that a young farmer of Pendleton County offers to give the right of way through his farm and $500. Postmaster Hill, of Mt. Olivet, proposes to move his house, if necessary, at his own expense, and give the right of way. Judge Nim Tilton, and Hon. E. Kenton, of Robertson County, each offer the free right of way through their farms, and to give $1,- 000 each. Others are equally liberal according to their means.

At the last session of the court at Carlisle, Judge Cole presiding, lawyer Tom Kennedy was somewhat nonplused. "It was towards evening," says the Paris Kentuckian-Citizen, "and Mr. Kennedy arose to make the closing speech in a case that had occupied two days. 'Gentlemen of the jury, I know your patience has been sorely taxed in hearing the evidence and the speeches in this case. But, gentlemen, be patient a little longer. Remember that in heaven and I believe you will all go to that good place, there will be no juries impaneled.' Just at that juncture, R. T. Endicott, one of the jurors, remarked with judicial gravity:
'There'll be no lawyers there, Mr. Kennedy.' 'Well, they say so,' said Mr. K.,
and after a few other circuitous remarks,
went on with his speech."

The Burreicks Estate.

The following letter has been handed us by Mr. A. Honan. If any of our readers can furnish the required information, they should write to Messrs. Laws & Co., 19 and 21 W. Pearl street, Cincinnati, Ohio:

CINCINNATI, OHIO, May 3, 1887.

A. Honan, Maysville, Ky.—Dear Sir: Enclosed letter relating to Henry Burreicks. If you knew him or where he came from please advise us, or if he was not known to you, ask some of your German fellow-citizens. It seems these people want to identify him, and there must be some one there who knows what part of Germany he came from. Your early reply and return of letter will oblige us. Yours, etc. JAMES H. LAWS & CO.

BISMUND, GERMANY, April 17, 1887.

By Omabruk—Messrs. James H. Laws & Co.—Cincinnati, Ohio.—Dear Sirs: You will confer a favor upon me by giving me the information if Henry Burreicks, who was murdered July 14, 1886, near Maysville, Ky., is known to you and is the same Henry Burricks, who was well known on Pearl street,
and no doubt has often bought at your house.
The relatives, or the supposed relatives here, live in my mother's neighborhood, and have requested me to assist them to prove the identity, as the principal papers all are lost.
Your old German porter certainly could perhaps tell if he (Burreicks) ever mentioned to him his birthplace as your porter is well known in this part of Germany, and undoubtedly must be acquainted with him.
AUG. KLAUSMEYER.

FISHERY CONTROVERSY.

THE PROPOSED TREATY BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

It calls for the Appointment of a Mixed Commission to Agree upon the Existing Difficulties, the Limit Line, and Privileges of Our Fishing Vessels.

New York, May 6.—The Washington correspondent of the Times sends to that paper a copy of the letter of Secretary of State Bayard to Minister Phelps, at London, enclosing a draft of a proposed treaty between the United States and Canada on the fishing controversy, the publication of which is said to be authorized by the secretary. The treaty calls for the appointment of a mixed commission to agree upon the limits which shall separate the exclusive from the common rights of fishing off the coast of the British North American colonies; to agree upon regulations to secure the fishermen of the United States the privilege of entering bays and harbors for the purpose of shelter, for repair, and of purchasing wood and water, and to agree upon penalties for the violation of such privileges.

Pending a definite arrangement, Great Britain agrees to instruct Canadian officials not to molest fishing vessels of the United States unless they are found actually fishing within three miles of the coast. Both governments agree to send each to the Gulf of St. Lawrence a national vessel and also one each to cruise during the fishing season on the southern coasts of Nova Scotia. When a vessel is seized for the violation of the foregoing provisions, the matter shall be reported to the officer in command of one of these National vessels, who, in conjunction with the commander of another of said vessels, shall constitute a court of inquiry. If both are of the opinion that the seizure was not for good cause, the vessel shall be released, and in the event of a difference of opinion between the commanders, a third person shall be selected to act as umpire.

It is proposed to give to fishing vessels the same commercial privileges in Canadian ports as are enjoyed by other United States vessels, including the purchase of bait and supplies; all vessels now under seizure for alleged violation of the fishery law to be released, and all fines exacted in such cases refunded. Great Britain is asked to agree to the appointment of a joint commission to ascertain the amount of damage caused to American fishermen during the year 1888 by seizure and otherwise, said committee to make awards therefor to the parties injured.

New York, May 6.—The leading hotel men of the city held a meeting last night at the Grand Central hotel. #### Who He Referred To.

New York, May 6.—Dr. McGlynn, in an open letter to the Times, denies that he ever spoke in an interview of Blaine-Corrigan intrigues, or anything of that nature.
